FORWARD LOOKING INFORMATION

Certain statements contained in this release constitute “forward-looking statements” or “forward-looking information” (collectively “forward-looking information”). These statements relate to future events or future performance. The use of any of the words “could”, “intend”, “expect”, “believe”, “will”, “projected”, “estimated”, “anticipates” and similar expressions and statements relating to matters that are not historical facts are intended to identify forward-looking information and are based on the Company’s current belief or assumptions as to the outcome and timing of such future events. Actual future results may differ materially. Such forward-looking statements necessarily involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, which may cause actual performance and financial results in future periods to differ materially from any projections of future performance or result expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, risks with respect to: the ability of Abattis to establish a market for its products and services; competitive conditions in the cannabis and nutraceutical industries; general economic conditions; competition for, among other things, capital and skilled personnel; potential delays or changes in plans with respect to deployment of services or capital expenditures; the possibility that government policies or laws may change and may regulate the products and services provided by or to be provided by Abattis; Abattis not adequately protecting its intellectual property; regulatory risks relating to Abattis’ businesses; and technological change. Although forward-looking statements contained in this release are based upon what management of the Company believes are reasonable assumptions, there can be no assurance that forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. The Company undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements if circumstances or management’s estimates or opinions should change except as required by applicable securities laws. The reader is cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.
