- The Company had cash as at April 30, 2020 of $5,632,160 (April 30, 2019 - $16,002,152) and current assets of $8,503,914 (April 30, 2019 - $20,957,680) to settle current liabilities of $5,493,417 (April 30, 2019 - $325,281). $3,018,134 of the current liabilities relate to convertible debt of $1,996,405 and resulting derivative liability of $1,021,729 assumed pursuant to the PED acquisition.
- The net loss and comprehensive loss for the year ended April 30, 2020 was $48,539,965 (as compared to April 30, 2019 of $12,354,999). The increased loss for the year is mainly attributed to the following:
 - Due to downturn in the cannabis market and management’s decision to deprioritize the development of the ultrasonic intellectual property technology, there is uncertainty in the realization of future economic benefits from this intellectual property. As a result, the Company assessed and recognized $7,773,287 in impairment charge against the value of this asset which is equivalent to 100% of its carrying amount.

- Due to uncertainty on the realization of future economic benefits from the ultrasonic technology the patent that relates to the technology was also impaired. As a result, the Company recognized an impairment charge of $101,367 relating to this ultrasonic patent in the statement of loss and comprehensive loss.
- The Company assessment of the value of the goodwill associated with the QCC acquisition amounted to $Nil and hence, an impairment loss equal to $20,450,690 was recognized in the statement of loss and comprehensive loss for the year. Impairment is attributed to a downturn in the cannabis market, declining extraction equipment sales and uncertainty of future economic benefits. The remaining goodwill relates to goodwill assumed upon acquisition of PED.
- In addition, the loss includes a write down of inventories of $3,406,415, depreciation and amortization expense of $2,375,327. Selling expenses totaled $1,108,292 (April 30, 2019 - $1,162,615). Rosy Mondin, CEO of World-Class stated: "World-Class has seen a 100% increase in its revenues from prior periods and we anticipate seeing triple-digit revenue growth for the rest of the year. By maximizing the capabilities of our subsidiaries we've been able to capitalize on their successes and the important role they play in supporting the growth of the Canadian cannabis industry. We are pleased with the strong growth from PED - since our acquisition of a controlling interest in PED in March 2020, PED continues to expand its service jurisdictions as well as its delivery of controlled substances, to now include wine, spirits and beer delivery in addition to recreational, medical and B2B cannabis delivery. To further support medical cannabis delivery to patients, PED partnered with Medical Cannabis by Shoppers™ and Spectrum Therapeutics, the medical division of Canopy Growth Corporation. The Soma team completed the commissioning of an independent mobile processing system which efficiently sorts, pelletizes, bags and oxygen-purges acres of hemp crop in hours. In addition, the Company is taking advantage of opportunities to monetize and deploy its extraction systems, and as announced in July 2020 we are purchasing a first position Debenture registered against the assets of HydRx Farms Inc."

"For this year-end," Ms. Mondin continued, "we have taken a extremely conservative accounting approach resulting in the impairment of our intangible assets. World-Class' cash position provides us the flexibility to meet operational obligations, while we pursue other opportunities that may arise during this period of volatility. Management remains hyper-focused as we strategically position ourselves to capitalize on the opportunities ahead in the pursuit of shareholder value. The downturn in the cannabis and hemp industries which began in 2019, and further amplified by the COVID-19 pandemic has certainly presented its challenges but our World-Class teams continue to execute on our growth strategy. We are proud of our ability to adapt and pivot to meet today's market realities. The steps taken this past year will result in a leaner and stronger company that will continue to innovate, maximize production and reduce costs and be a strong industry competitor."
