

3 Sixty Secure Corp. Announces Governance Change

Company has commenced search process for two new directors

ALMONTE, Ontario, Dec. 30, 2019 -- 3 Sixty Risk Solutions Ltd. ("3 Sixty" or the "Company") (CSE: SAFE) (OTCQB: SAYFF) (FSE: 62P2), which operates through its wholly-owned subsidiary, 3 Sixty Secure Corp., announced that the Company has accepted the resignation of Rick Gabrielson as director of the Company.

Mr. Gabrielson, who has extensive supply chain experience in U.S. logistics, resigned as he felt he could no longer be an active value add member to the board due to the Company's strategy to focus primarily on Canada and organic growth in the United States in 2020. The Company thanks Mr. Gabrielson for his service to the Board and wishes him well in his future endeavours.

The Company's Board remains constituted of a majority of independent directors, and its Compensation and Governance Committee has commenced a formal search process for two new replacement directors.

Forward-Looking Information

This news release contains "forward-looking information" and "forward-looking statements" (collectively, "forward-looking statements") within the meaning of the applicable Canadian securities legislation. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements and are based on expectations, estimates and projections as at the date of this news release. Any statement that involves discussions with respect to predictions, expectations, beliefs, plans, projections, objectives, assumptions, future events or performance (often but not always using phrases such as "expects", or "does not expect", "is expected", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", "plans", "budget", "scheduled", "forecasts", "estimates", "believes" or "intends" or variations of such words and phrases or stating that certain actions, events or results "may" or "could", "would", "might" or "will" be taken to occur or be achieved) are not statements of historical fact and may be forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are necessarily based upon a number of estimates and assumptions that, while considered reasonable, are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors which may cause the actual results and future events to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to: general business, economic, competitive, political and social uncertainties. There can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements and information contained in this news release. Except as required by law, 3 Sixty assumes no obligation to update the forward-looking statements of beliefs, opinions, projections, or other factors, should they change, except as required by law.

Neither the Canadian Securities Exchange nor its Regulation Services Provider (as that term is defined in the policies of the CSE) accepts responsibility for the adequacy or accuracy of this release.
