

VirtualArmour Announces Common Stock Now DTC Eligible

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, Jan. 04, 2018 -- Premier Managed Services Provider, VirtualArmour International Inc. (the "Company") (CSE:VAI) (3V3:F) (OTCQB:VTLR) is pleased to announce that its common stock has become eligible for deposit at The Depository Trust Company ("DTC").

DTC eligibility allows for VirtualArmour shares to be more easily and economically transferred between brokerage accounts electronically. DTC is the largest securities depository in the world and acts as a clearinghouse for brokers, providing various required services.

"The ability for VirtualArmour shares to be electronically transferrable between brokerages in the US brings increased convenience and reductions to the costs incurred when trading shares." said Christopher Blisard, Chairman and Co-Founder, VirtualArmour. "Making it more efficient and economical for brokers to buy and sell VTLR shares has advantages for business. Not only will it save shareholders cost and time, but we also expect it to facilitate increased trading in the open market and enable us to expand our shareholder base as we continue to grow the business."
