Issue of Common Shares by Wayland Group Corp.

I am the General Counsel of Wayland Group Corp. (the “Company”) and have acted in that capacity in connection with the issue on March 19, 2019 of an aggregate of 483,000 common shares in the capital of the Company (the “Common Shares”) issued pursuant to agreements between the Company and IAS New York Inc. and MJM Markets and Consulting Ltd., respectively.

I am providing this letter at the request of the Company to satisfy the requirements of Section 3.4 of Canadian Securities Exchange Policy 6 – Distributions.

A. Jurisdiction

I am a solicitor qualified to practise law in the Province of Ontario and I express no opinion as to any laws or any matters governed by any laws other than the laws of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

B. Scope of Examinations

In connection with the opinions expressed in this letter I have considered such questions of law and examined such public and corporate records, certificates and other documents and conducted such other examinations that I have considered necessary.

C. Assumptions and Reliances

I have assumed the legal capacity of all individuals, the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to me as originals and the conformity to authentic original documents of all documents submitted to us as certified, conformed, photostatic, electronic or facsimile copies.

D. Opinions

On the basis of the foregoing, I am of the opinion that the Common Shares have been duly authorized and validly issued and are outstanding as fully paid and non-assessable.

The opinion in this letter is given solely for the benefit of the addressee in connection with the transactions referred to and may not, in whole or in part, be relied upon by or shown or distributed to any other person.

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature consisting of two parts. The first part is a stylized, somewhat abstract scribble with several vertical and diagonal strokes. The second part is a more recognizable, cursive signature that appears to be the letters 'E' and 'S' joined together, with a long, sweeping tail extending upwards and to the right.
