ePlay Announces 100,000 App Downloads in 100 Days
Augmented Reality titles Howie Go Viral and SwishAR lead to phenomenal results

ePlay Digital Inc. \(CSE:EPY\)\(OTC PINK:EPYFF\)\(FSE:2NY2\) (the "Company") today announced it has surpassed 100,000 downloads of game titles featuring Howie Mandel. The results are expected to accelerate as additional marketing, cross-marketing, new titles, and new monetization channels are layered into early success.

The number one downloaded ePlay game from April to June on Google Play Store, with over 30,000 downloads, is Outbreak - a match-3 mini-game that is similar to Tetris. The number one downloaded ePlay game from the Apple App Store was its augmented reality basketball title SwishAR, with just under 30,000 downloads. The number one title overall was Howie Go Viral with 34,000 downloads on Google Play and Apple App Store.

Just three of eleven ePlay titles served up nearly 95,000 ePlay downloads as the company looks to take this marketing success and apply it to game apps already available such as ePlay's eSports (ES) series and upcoming titles Fan Freak and Klocked.

"ePlay and its subsidiary Mobovivo has helped ESPN, Sony Pictures, Time Warner Cable Sportsnet, and others get millions of downloads," says Trevor Doerksen, CEO of ePlay Digital.

"With over 100,000 downloads in 100 days, ePlay is now on its way to millions of downloads for Howie's Games, Klocked, and Fan Freak."

This week the company also announced the first beta release of Klocked with virtual courses in Boston, Toronto, California, Tennessee, Chicago, New York, London, and Paris. With Klocked, runners can customize their avatars, share their runs, upload to Strava, and run under the Eiffel Tower or by the London Eye. The website at Klocked.me continues to accept early access participants.
