About Auxellence Health Corporation

Auxellence is a health technology company that aims to provide high-level online health services for resolving common health problems. The company offers an extensive platform for physiologically interactive computing supporting therapeutic-diagnostic (theranostic) devices, expert systems, and recommender applications for personal health management. The initial focus is on weight management and skin conditions. The platform involves a unique body-machine feedback interactivity that allows the system to continually customize its operation and recommendations, according to the consumer's immediate health needs and goals.
