FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Open Source Health Obtains Loan

Toronto, Canada – November 26, 2014: Open Source Health Inc. (CSE: OSH) (the “Company”), a cloud based integrative healthcare platform that puts control in the hands of women to educate, advocate and collaborate on their own healthcare, is pleased to announce that it has received a loan of $75,000 from Pilkington Capital Corporation, a company controlled by the Chairman of the Company. Proceeds of the loan will be used to fund marketing and working capital. The loan is payable six months from the date of issuance and bears interest of 15% per annum. If repayment is not made at maturity interest is 20%. Pilkington Capital Corporation will receive 150,000 common share purchase warrants (a “Warrant”) in the capital of the Company in connection with the loan.

Each Warrant will entitle the holder thereof to purchase one common share of the Company at a price of $0.50 for a period of 36 months from the date of issuance of the Warrant.

Mr. Bartholomew is the Chairman and a director of the Company. The Company is relying on exemptions from the formal valuation and minority shareholder approval requirements of Multilateral Instrument 61-101 based on financial hardship and the fact that the common shares of the Company are listed on the Canadian Securities Exchange. A material change report in connection promissory note will be filed less than 21 days before the closing of the transaction. This shorter period is reasonable and necessary in the circumstances due to the fact that the Company requires the funds to continue operations.
