Auxellence Reviewing Options for a Dual Listing on International Stock Exchanges.

VANCOUVER, BC, Wednesday, January 28, 2015 – Auxellence Health Corporation (CSE:AID) announces that it is reviewing options to pursue a foreign listing of both equity and debt securities on various foreign stock exchanges. The company has begun initial consultations for review of a possible listing on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange (Frankfurter Wertpapierboerse (FWB)) of its common shares; and has retained counsel to list both debt and equity securities on the China Beijing Equity Exchange (CBEX). The company is also still considering its options for a listing on a US market or exchange platform. Any potential listings would be expected to increase the company’s visibility for both the company and its technology. The company will provide further updates in regards to its progress, as details become available.
