The answers to the items must be in narrative form. State when the answer to any item is negative or not applicable to the Issuer. The title to each item must precede the answer.
- (b) The term "Issuer" includes the Issuer and any of its subsidiaries.
- (c) Terms used and not defined in this form are defined or interpreted in Policy 1 – Interpretation and General Provisions.

Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

During this month, the Issuer has continued its operations with planning of its business development. Management has received delivery of a hardware component of the theranostic device and continues working with its supplier in testing and improving of the software component and usability of the system. The company's manufacturer received regulatory approvals and market clearances for sale in Canada and the European Union.

The Issuer has been finalizing all the details of the Plan of Arrangement in preparation of completing the share push outs. The Issuer continues to work with a number of private venture capital firms for financing. The original agreement with Intrinsic Venture Corp. was not completed and has been terminated. The company has been in discussions with Intrinsic to determine how to continue to possibly work together for financing. The USA distribution agreement that was signed and announced August 22, 2014 along with a specific plan of arrangement for the USA distribution company has also been terminated as indicated in the news release and corporate update on June 5, 2015. The issuer had announced on July 20, 2015 that it had offered or extended a new non-exclusive USA licensing agreement subject to financing and final approval by the intellectual property holder and creator.

Provide a general overview and discussion of the activities of management.

Management continues to pursue opportunities in the healthcare business. While the primary focus is still on customizing hardware technologies and software applications towards providing personalized health solutions for common health issues related to cardio-metabolic conditions, it is focussing initially on weight management. Management has been exposed to and presented with a number of health/medical opportunities, interesting software technologies, and other potential businesses. Management held an AGSM to approve the Plan of Arrangement and received final order from the Supreme Court of BC after shareholder approval was received. Management has completed the plan of arrangement and have spun out the subsidiaries from the Plan of Arrangement. The Company also continues to evaluate business opportunities in an endeavour to increase shareholder value. The primary business of the Issuer continues in the consumer health technology field and it is now working with various funding sources to ensure capital financing to continue to develop itself as an innovative consumer health solutions company. Management has had extensive meetings and discussions with numerous brokerage companies, private equity and venture capital firms to secure additional funding to continue to develop its business. As the issuer has terminated the USA distribution agreement, it is focusing on its Canadian roll-out. Management continues with the usability testing of hardware and software components for marketing and commercial readiness purposes. The company has initiated a commercial usability pilot to test the system and has both private and clinical users testing the system. Management has retained counsel and consultants for listing on other international stock exchanges to increase visibility for the company and to potentially secure financing. Management has been active in meeting with broker-dealers, private equity companies, investment fund companies and venture capital companies. Management has also been active in fulfilling administrative duties. There are no other matters to report.
