Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer’s business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

The Company is a leader in the marketing services industry. The Company develops and manages merchant based loyalty programs for its Affinity partners Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (“CIBC”), Toronto Dominion Bank (“TD”), Aimia Canada Inc. (“Aimia”) and Caesars Entertainment Corporation (“Caesars”).

The programs the Company operates in partnership with CIBC and TD (“CIBC/TD program”), Aimia (“Aeroplan program”) and Caesars (“Caesars program”) enable holders of designated CIBC credit cards, TD aero credit cards, Aimia’s Aeroplan and Caesars Total Rewards members (holders and members together “consumers”) to accelerate earning frequent flyer miles and/or other rewards (“consumer rewards”) on completing purchases at participating merchants.

Under the umbrella of each program, the Company markets participating merchants to consumers and on behalf of the merchants issues consumer rewards, provides merchants with business intelligence connected to the spending behaviour of consumers, and at its sole discretion provides merchants with working capital by the pre-purchase of their future sales.

On a combined basis, Advantex has contractual marketing access to millions of Canadian and US consumers with above-average personal and household income.

The Company earns revenue from merchants participating in its CIBC/TD program, in the form of an agreed marketing fee, for every purchase completed using a CIBC and TD aero credit card at their establishments. The Company earns its revenue in the Aeroplan program from selling consumer rewards, at an agreed price per consumer reward, to participating merchants. Merchants participating in the Caesars program pay an agreed monthly participation fee.

The Company’s merchant partner base operates in diverse business segments: restaurants; golf courses; independent inns, resorts and selected hotels; spas; retailers of men’s and ladies fashion, footwear and accessories; retailers of sporting goods; florists and garden centres; book and newspaper stores; health and beauty centres; dry cleaners; gift centres; home décor; automotive dealers, service centers; and tire dealerships many of which are leaders in their respective business segment.

At the end of January, 2016 there were about 1,600 merchants participating in the Company’s programs.

Though merchant count is a key driver of revenues from the two programs, revenues from the CIBC/TD program are also dependent on the penetration of CIBC credit cards; TD aero credit cards; economic environment; mix of merchants in terms of their volume of CIBC and TD credit card transactions; and merchant participation levels in the Advance Purchase Marketing (“APM”) and Marketing Only products because the fees that a merchant would pay for participation in APM is higher compared to Marketing Only. Revenues from the Aeroplan program reflect the number of participating merchants and level of engagement of participating merchants in the program. The revenues from the Caesars program are dependent on the number of participating merchants. The Company’s revenues are also reflective of seasonal consumer behaviour. A fuller detail on the Company’s programs and revenues is available in its annual and interim filings available under the Company’s profile on www.sedar.com.
