Auxellence Arranging $1.05 Million Secured Convertible Credit Facility

VANCOUVER, BC, Tuesday, February 23, 2016 – Auxellence Health Corporation (CSE:AID, OTCQB: AXHLF), (“Auxellence” or the “Company”) announces the arranging by the Company’s Chairman of a one-year, $1.05 million credit facility. The gross amount, including interest, shall be convertible debt, secured by the Company’s Intellectual Property, under the same terms as the Private Placement announced on February, 22, 2016.

The Private Placement remains open. Expressions of interest in this financing are welcome until March 7th, 2016.

“We are very pleased with the results of the Pioneer Commercial Pilot Program of our medical device. We are now ready to speed up the execution of our roll-out plan for Canada and the European Union and advance our mission in the United States in view of the rapid increase in demand for health self-care services”, said Sydney Au, Chairman and CEO.

About Tulip™

TULIP™ is a medical device cleared for sales in Canada and Europe as a blood pressure monitor with interactive protocols. The device enables physiologically interactive health apps useful in testing, tracking, and treating common health conditions. The online system is aimed primarily at “practicing patients” interested in normalizing blood pressure, blood glucose, and body weight. Session schedules, measurement procedures, and conditioning protocols are prescribed automatically by the system from extemporaneous data acquired from the user.

About Auxellence Health Corporation (CSE: AID, OTCQB: AXHLF)

Auxellence is a technology company engaged in the provision of medical monitoring, diagnostics, therapeutics and biomedical online services for common health problems. The company offers an extensive platform for physiologically interactive computing supporting therapeutic-diagnostic (theranostic) devices, expert systems, and recommender applications for personal health management. The initial focus is on weight management and skin conditions.
