

Immunall Science Inc. Signs Distributorship Agreement

Immunall Science Inc. (“Immunall”) is pleased to announce that it has signed an exclusive distributorship agreement with Infinity Science Corporation (“Infinity”) of Canada. The agreement provides Infinity with the exclusive rights to market Immunall’s patented immune enhancing product ginsē™ throughout Canada.

David Rogers, C.E.O. of Immunall Science Inc. remarked “this agreement is a significant step for Immunall and we are confident that Infinity will take full advantage of the powerful potential that ginsē™ provides”.

James Sharpe, Managing Director of Infinity Science Corporation, states “on behalf of Infinity, we are most pleased to form this relationship. From the evidence we have seen regarding the performance of ginsē™ we are optimistic that the product will be well received by the buying public”.

About Immunall Science Inc.

Immunall Science Inc. uses a patented process for extracting certain components from American ginseng which have been shown to strengthen the immune system in humans and animals. The product ginsē™ (pronounced jin’ say) will be marketed to companies for inclusion in current products as a value added ingredient or as a new stand-alone product.
