

DIZUN INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES INC.
ANNOUNCES FORWARD SPLIT

April 19, 2012: VANCOUVER, BC – Dizun International Enterprises Inc. (“Dizun”) (CNSX: KDZ) announces that it intends to complete a forward split of its common shares on a 10 for 1 basis. Dizun’s management believes that the forward split will enhance Dizun’s liquidity and facilitate future acquisitions and growth. The forward split is being completed in accordance with the company’s articles, approval by Dizun’s board of directors granted on April 18, 2012, the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia), and CNSX requirements. As a result, the current 11,605,880 issued and outstanding common shares in Dizun’s capital will be increased to 116,058,800 common shares. Any resulting fractional shares will be rounded to the nearest whole share.

Subject to final exchange approval, all holders of record as of April 25, 2012 will receive nine additional shares (the “Additional Shares”) for each share owned on the Record Date. The Company anticipates that certificates representing the Additional Shares will be mailed to holders on or about May 2, 2012.

On behalf of the Board of Directors
