Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer’s business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

Nass Valley is focused on establishing demonstration facilities for its green technologies – the M-Wave wood drying technology and its emission free energy converting and waste disposal system. NVG will operate and commercialize the two technologies through its subsidiaries: M-Wave EnviroTech Inc. (“MWE”), Global Environomic Systems Corp. (“GSC”) respectively.

The Company’s common shares are listed for trading on the CNSX under the symbol “NVG” and are co-listed on the “open market” of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and trading under the symbol “3NVN”.

2. Provide a general overview and discussion of the activities of management.

MWE's first installed M-Wave drying unit (see Progress Reports of Feb. and Mar., 2013) is still being used for trial-runs of cedar shingles to demonstrate and prove the efficiency of the M-Wave System for custom drying of all soft and hard wood products used in the housing construction industry.

Although M-Wave EnviroTech has proven the technology works, the Company has initiated changes to improve the efficiency and scope of applications. The installation of these improvements has been rescheduled and MWE's representatives are presently overseas with the part manufactures to confirm proper scheduling.

As reported, MWE has also initiated the design of a second M-Wave unit to accommodate additional demand for M-Wave dried products.

The Company remains very active in marketing the Enviro-X System for its subsidiary Global Environomic Systems Corp. and is presently in serious negotiations with large wood-waste producers for the installation of an Enviro-X Unit to convert wood waste into green commodities.

17. Discuss any trends which are likely to impact the Issuer including trends in the Issuer's market(s) or political/regulatory trends.

The Company has historically relied upon equity financings to satisfy its capital requirements and will continue to depend heavily upon equity capital to finance its activities. Although the Company's first "M-Wave Unit" for JV-BC01, has been financed, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain required financings for future development and sales of its new technology production units on acceptable terms. The Company is convinced that it will need additional capital in the future to finance ongoing commercialization of its technology projects and such capital will have to be derived from the exercise of outstanding stock options, warrants and/or the completion of other equity financings, including possible governmental subsidies, and additional sales contracts.

Nass Valley Gateway has limited financial resources and presently has no source of operating income. Although the Company has been successful in the past in financing its activities through the sale of equity securities and loans from insiders, there is no assurance that additional funding will be available to it for future development of its projects. The Company's ability to arrange additional financing in the future will depend, in part, on the prevailing capital market conditions and success in its projects.

There can be no assurance that continual fluctuations in the Company's share prices will not occur or that these fluctuations will not affect the ability of the Company to raise equity funding, and if at all, without causing a significant dilution to its existing shareholders. Any quoted market for the common shares may be subject to market trends generally, notwithstanding any potential success of the Company in creating revenue, cash flows or earnings.
