Portex Minerals Inc. Enters into Investor Relations Contract

June 20, 2011, Toronto, Ontario; Portex Minerals Inc. (formerly, Strategic Resource Acquisition Corporation) ("Portex" or the "Corporation", CNSX: PAX) is pleased to announce that it has entered into an investor relations contract with Allyson Taylor Partners Inc. ("Allyson Taylor"), a Montreal, Canada based investor relations and capital markets consulting firm.

The major terms of the contract include (a) a monthly fee of $10,000 for a minimum period of six months; (b) a grant of 120,000 options to purchase common shares at a price of $0.135 per share for a period of three years from the date of the agreement with vesting of 1/3 at the date of grant, 1/3 on the first anniversary thereof and 1/3 on the second anniversary thereof. Should the agreement be terminated, the stock options must be exercised within 30 days from the date of termination. The agreement may be terminated by either party upon 60 days' written notice. The agreement is subject to all regulatory filings and approvals.

Allyson Taylor will provide various services to Portex including evaluating the advantages and disadvantages of various transactions in light of the Corporation's strategic objectives, assisting in the raising of capital for future requirements and assisting in broadening the Corporation's shareholder base in the Canadian and European investment communities. Allyson Taylor has represented other junior mining companies.

Portex is a Toronto-based mineral development company, focused on acquisition and development of base and precious metal properties in Canada and in low-risk foreign locations.
