Bruce Murray appointed Chairman of the Board

October 15, 2010

Covenant Resources Ltd. (the “Company”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Director Bruce James Murray, a native Calgarian with 29 years of varied business and oil and gas experience, as its new Chairman of the Board.

“We are pleased that Bruce has accepted this nomination,” said Frank Port, CEO. “His leadership, depth and scope of industry expertise and operations knowledge will be important drivers for success in the future.”

Mr. Murray has worked with both senior and junior oil and gas companies since earning his Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Calgary in 1979. He was President and Director of TSX-listed Tenergy Ltd. from 2005 until it was sold for $92 million to First Reserve and Quintanna Oil and Gas in early 2006, and was previously COO and Director of TSX-listed Purcell Energy Ltd., which he co-founded. Approximately two-thirds of Purcell’s assets were sold to Prairie Schooner Petroleum and Crescent Point Energy Ltd. for more than $150 million in 2005. The remaining assets were spun into two exploration companies, one of which was Tenergy Ltd.

Covenant Resources is a junior natural resource company focused on acquiring, exploring and developing oil and gas opportunities in known oil and gas districts of North America. The Company owns 41,500 net acres of oil and gas leases in the Sweetgrass Arch area of Montana, part of an active oil and gas district known to have significant gas potential as well as Bakken oil potential.
