RESAAS Welcomes OC Homes Realty to the Real Estate Social Network

VANCOUVER, BC. (January 24th, 2013)- RESAAS Services Inc., a social network for real estate professionals, is excited to announce its new service agreement with OC Homes Realty and would like to welcome this Southern California real estate firm to the RESAAS platform.

OC Homes Realty is a full service brokerage offering state of the art real estate service. Their focus is to provide a resourceful brokerage to their real estate agents and provide great value to their clients. With great experience as a brokerage servicing all areas in Southern California, OC Homes Realty helps both buyers and sellers meet their real estate objectives. The firm has an extensive knowledge of each of the communities of Southern California and works tirelessly to make the home buying and selling experience a pleasant and successful one.

“As the Southern California real estate market accelerates, OC Homes Realty is aware that empowering their agents to create business through social networking is a must,” said Pdraig Cullen, Senior Executive of Sales at RESAAS. OC Homes Realty will give their agents a robust and centralized hub of social networking that will not only deliver their real estate messages to other networks, but will also give their agent’s content enhancers to help them create their own valuable social content. Bryon Minton and Mel Peyton, Executives of OC Homes Realty, understand that having a branded, easy to use and mobile friendly real estate social network is a winning combination and a recipe for future real estate successes.”

When using RESAAS, all OC Homes Realty agents will receive their own corporate branded agent pages. In addition, the firm will have an OC Homes Realty News page in order to broadcast information and remain in constant contact with the members of OC Homes Realty who are a part of their corporate social network on RESAAS.
