RESAAS Services Inc. announces the appointment of Tom Rossiter as the President of the Company

VANCOUVER, BC. (March 13th, 2013) - Today RESAAS is very pleased to announce that Director and CTO, Tom Rossiter, has been promoted to the position of President.

RESAAS Chairman and CEO, Cory Brandolini, said, "I am very pleased that Tom has accepted this expanded role with the company. As one of the original RESAAS team members, Tom has been an integral part of the company and has excelled in his previous position as VP of Engineering to his current positions as a Director of the Company and Chief Technology Officer. RESAAS is at a very exciting time in its evolution as we have recently moved from closed beta to full commercialization."

"Our platform, services and customer base are growing at a rapid pace, so having the ability to expand our executive team from within the RESAAS family to meet the demand, growth and expansion is ideal from a corporate prospective."

"Tom will continue to hold the positions of Director and CTO."

"I am thrilled to accept the position as President of RESAAS at such an exciting time for the company," said Rossiter. "The RESAAS social network is seeing incredible adoption in the real estate marketplace. I will continue to work alongside our CEO on strategic growth, including expansion and overseas opportunities, as well as work closely with the engineering and sales teams within RESAAS."
