TORONTO, Sept. 25, 2017 /CNW/ - Alternate Health Corp ("Alternate Health" or the "Company") (CSE:AHG) (OTC:AHGIF), an international medical cannabis company that uses best-in-class technology, research, education, production and laboratories to increase the awareness, regulatory compliance, and appropriate usage of cannabinoids in modern medical practices, today announced that the American Medical Marijuana Physicians Association (AMMPA) has endorsed the Company's CanaPass patient management software.

"AMMPA's commitment to physician advocacy means that we are always looking for products that will help increase compliance, decrease liability, and improve patient outcomes in the medical marijuana industry," says Dr. Orlando Florete, MD, President of the American Medical Marijuana Physicians Association. "We believe that CanaPass and its U.S. equivalents will be a benefit to physicians that recommend alternative medical treatments in a safe and legal environment."

Based in Clermont, Florida, AMMPA's mission is to support physicians and patients who utilize medical marijuana as a treatment alternative in the setting of a legally indicated diagnosis. With over 650 physician members, AMMPA is a leader in providing physicians with comprehensive support in education, compliance and legal advocacy.

"We are honored to receive AMMPA's recognition of the CanaPass system's unparalleled focus on transparency and compliance," says Jade Green, Vice-President, Sales and Marketing, at Alternate Health.
