

Imagination Park music video production debuts on billboard.com and surpasses 1 million views

Vancouver, BC – September 15th, 2016 – Imagination Park Entertainment Inc. (CSE: IP) (OTC: IPNFF) (“Imagination Park” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Company’s recent music video production, “Stay a While” for pop DJ superstars, Dimitri Vegas & Like Mike, debuted on billboard.com and has already surpassed over one million views on YouTube.

After a string of high profile releases so far this year, the #1 DJ’s on the planet (as voted by DJmag.com readers), can remain kings within the current electronic music climate with this new music video. Shot on location in Ibiza Spain, their video was produced by Gabriel Napora and Yas Taalat for Imagination Park and directed by world class cinematographer Oliver Millar, who’s past commercial credits include Facebook, Nike, Mercedes, Tiffany & Co., and Pioneer, as well as musical act A$AP Rocky, among others.

Gabriel Napora comments, “I’m still amazed that our Company in its early stages was selected to do a music video for the #1 DJ’s in the world. It’s both incredible and humbling to have been given this opportunity. The response to the video has exceeded everyone’s expectations and having it debut on Billboard is the icing on the cake. I think this video proves that Imagination Park can produce world class projects”.

‘Stay A While’ is included in the official aftermovie of Tomorrowland Brasil and was one of the most anticipated tracks of the year. Imagination Park continues to slate revenue-producing projects, especially productions such as this, that elevate the profile and status of the Company within the entertainment industry.
