Vancouver, BC – March 1, 2017 – Imagination Park Entertainment Inc. (CSE: IP) (OTC: IPNFF) ("Imagination Park" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that its short film SPOKEN WORD was awarded BEST FEATURE FILM from the Independent Cinema.

Lance Reddick

Spoken Word star, actor Lance Reddick, won the ICFFA award for Best Actor.

Lance Reddick comments, "I want to thank Executive Producer Gabriel Napora and all the cast members. I realize that even though I've received this award personally, I realize that it's just part of a larger mosaic".

"Spoken Word" was produced by Imagination Park Entertainment and directed by the writer, Ilan Srulovicz, "I Hate Ned" (2011), "Grit" (2015) and "Zero

Day” (2015) and stars actor Lance Reddick (Fringe, Lost, John Wick, The Wire), as an African American judge in a moral conflict. Race, perception and consequence become the center point of three lives, as Judge Matthews realizes that he can no longer overlook his actions from the bench.

“Spoken Word” has also been accepted, and will be officially screened at The Boston International Film Festival (BIFF 2017). The film festival will be held from April 13th through April 17th at the Regal Fenway Theater, Loews Cineplex / AMC, Paramount Theaters and Broadway Pictures Entertainment Studio in Boston, Massachusetts.

Chairman Colin Wiebe states: “In a time when diversity is a trending topic, Spoken Word is timely. Imagination Park is honored to have a part in this important film’s development and to be selected for these prestigious film festivals is a testament to the passion of the producer, writer/director and cast. We anticipate the film will be very popular as we work toward getting it to the big screen.”

The Boston International Film Festival was created to celebrate the art of filmmaking and to honour the filmmakers who make it all possible. BIFF is a festival dedicated to rewarding artists for their individual talents and for their creative expression through the medium of film. The 5-day event will showcase to over 200 filmmakers, actors, writers and industry insiders from over 20 countries, and more than 20,000 movie goers, volunteers, journalists and corporate guests.
