

Imagination Park's Award Winning Film "Spoken Word" Nominated For The International Filmmaker Festival Of World Cinema NICE 2017!

Vancouver, BC – March 8, 2017 – Imagination Park Entertainment Inc. (CSE: IP) (OTC: IPNFF) ("Imagination Park" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that its award-winning short film SPOKEN WORD₂ has been nominated for The International Filmmaker Festival of World Cinema NICE 2017!

Held in the South of France just a few days before the Cannes International Film Festival, the Nice Festival is a platform for filmmakers to meet, network and do business with distributors and industry professionals.

NICE International Film Festival has, as its objective, the promotion of cinematographic art by presenting films of quality and excellence in entertainment.

"Spoken Word" was produced by Gabriel Napora and Tim Marlowe of Imagination Park Entertainment and directed by Ilan Srulovicz, also an acclaimed actor in The Walking Dead and Deepwater Horizon, and stars Lance Reddick (Fringe, Lost, John Wick, The Wire), as an African American judge in a moral conflict. Race, perception and consequence become the center point of three lives, as Judge Matthews realizes that he can no longer overlook his actions from the bench.

Imagination Park plans to develop "Spoken Word" into a full-length feature film and to be screened in the South of France this year is a huge milestone for Imagination Park.

Chairman, Colin Wiebe, states: "Spoken Word is resonating with festivals and audiences around the world. Imagination Park is honored to play a part in the film's development and to be selected for these prestigious film festivals, is a testament to the passion of the producer, writer/director and cast. The "award winning" film is gaining momentum as we work toward getting it to the big screen."
