Kin will be paid $7,500 plus GST per month for an initial term of 12 months. Kin will also be granted 350,000 stock options of the Company, subject to regulatory approval, exercisable at $0.20 per share. The options will vest at a rate of 25% per quarter from the date of the grant and will be exercisable for a period of five years. The Company has been advised that Kin and its principals own no common shares or share purchase warrants the Company.

About Quadron: Quadron is a British Columbia-based company, and a reporting issuer in British Columbia and Alberta. The Company operates through its two subsidiaries: Soma Labs Scientific Inc. (“Soma”) and Greenmantle Products Limited (“Greenmantle”), providing ancillary equipment, products and services, designed and structured to address the complex needs and requirements of cannabis industry participants in Canada and the US. Soma provides research, services and production equipment to the biotech and biocetical industries, including cannabis extraction and processing equipment that is being leased and/or sold to various industry participants. Greenmantle’s business involves the sale of ancillary cannabis products, such as customized dispensing devices (i.e. vaporizer pens) and consumption type products such as branded encapsulation products to authorized cannabis industry participants.
