It is hereby acknowledged and agreed by each of the Parties that where any variation in the terms and/or conditions of this Agreement is reasonably required by any of the Regulatory Authorities as a condition of their respective "Regulatory Approval" to any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, any such reasonable variation, having first been notified to all Parties, will be deemed to be accepted by each of the Parties and form part of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If any such Party, acting reasonably, deems any such notified variation unreasonable, that Party may, in its sole and absolute discretion, and within a period of not greater than 10 calendar days from its original notification and at its cost, make such further applications or submissions to the relevant Regulatory Authority as it considers necessary in order to seek an amendment to any such variation; provided, however, that the final determination by any such Regulatory Authority to any such application or submission by such objecting Party will be deemed binding upon such Party who must then provide notification to all other Parties as provided for hereinabove.

ARTICLE 11 FORCE MAJEURE

11.1 Events.

If any Party is at any time prevented or delayed in complying with any provisions of this Agreement by reason of strikes, walk-outs, labour shortages, power shortages, fires, wars, acts of God, earthquakes, storms, floods, explosions, accidents, delays in transportation, breakdown of machinery, inability to obtain necessary materials in the open market, unavailability of equipment, governmental regulations restricting normal operations, shipping delays or any other reason or reasons beyond the control of that Party, then the time limited for the performance by that Party of its respective obligations hereunder shall be extended by a period of time equal in length to the period of each such prevention or delay.

11.2 Notice.

A Party shall, within seven calendar days, give notice to the other Parties of each event of force majeure under Section 11.1 above, and upon cessation of such event shall furnish the other Parties with notice of that event together with particulars of the number of days by which the obligations of that Party hereunder have been extended by virtue of such event of force majeure and all preceding events of force majeure.

ARTICLE 12 DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

12.1 Default.

The Parties agree that if any Party is in default with respect to any of the provisions of this Agreement (herein called the “Defaulting Party”), the non-defaulting Parties (herein called, collectively, the “Non-Defaulting Party”) shall give notice to the Defaulting Party designating such default, and within five calendar days after its receipt of such notice, the Defaulting Party shall either:

- (a) cure such default, or commence proceedings to cure such default and prosecute the same to completion without undue delay; or
- (b) give the Non-Defaulting Party notice that it denies that such default has occurred.

12.2 Termination.

In addition to the foregoing it is hereby acknowledged and agreed by the Parties that this Agreement will be immediately terminated by agreement in writing by each of the Parties and in such event this Agreement will be terminated and be of no further force and effect other than the obligations under ARTICLE 8 and ARTICLE 9 hereof.

ARTICLE 13 INDEMNIFICATION AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

13.1 Indemnification.

The Parties agree to indemnify and save harmless the other Parties and including, where applicable, their respective affiliates, directors, officers, employees and agents (each such party being an “Indemnified Party”) harmless from and against any and all third party losses, claims, actions, suits, proceedings, damages, liabilities or expenses of whatever nature or kind, including any investigation expenses incurred by any Indemnified Party, to which an Indemnified Party may become subject by reason of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

13.2 No indemnification.

This indemnity will not apply in respect of an Indemnified Party in the event and to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction in a final judgment shall determine that the Indemnified Party was grossly negligent or guilty of willful misconduct.

13.3 Claim of indemnification.

The Parties agree to waive any right they might have of first requiring the Indemnified Party to proceed against or enforce any other right, power, remedy, security or claim payment from any other person before claiming this indemnity.

13.4 Notice of claim.

In case any action is brought against an Indemnified Party in respect of which indemnity may be sought against any of the Parties, the Indemnified Party will give the relevant Party prompt written notice of any such action of which the Indemnified Party has knowledge and such Party will undertake the investigation and defense thereof on behalf of the Indemnified Party, including the prompt Consulting of counsel acceptable to the Indemnified Party affected and the payment of all expenses. Failure by the Indemnified Party to so notify shall not relieve any Party of such Party's obligation of indemnification hereunder unless (and only to the extent that) such failure results in a forfeiture by any Party of substantive rights or defenses.

13.5 Settlement.

No admission of liability and no settlement of any action shall be made without the consent of each of the Parties and the consent of the Indemnified Party affected, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

13.6 Legal proceedings.

Notwithstanding that the relevant Party will undertake the investigation and defense of any action, an Indemnified Party will have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action and participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel will be at the expense of the Indemnified Party unless:

- (a) such counsel has been authorized by the relevant Party;
- (b) the relevant Party hereto has not assumed the defense of the action within a reasonable period of time after receiving notice of the action;
- (c) the named parties to any such action include any Party hereto and the Indemnified Party shall have been advised by counsel that there may be a conflict of interest between any Party hereto and the Indemnified Party; or
- (d) there are one or more legal defenses available to the Indemnified Party which are different from or in addition to those available to any Party hereto.

13.7 Contribution.

If for any reason other than the gross negligence or bad faith of the Indemnified Party being the primary cause of the loss claim, damage, liability, cost or expense, the foregoing indemnification is unavailable to the Indemnified Party or insufficient to hold them harmless, the relevant Party hereto shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by the Indemnified Party as a result of any and all such losses, claim, damages or liabilities in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits received by any Party hereto on the one hand and the Indemnified Party on the other, but also the relative fault of the Parties and other equitable considerations which may be relevant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the relevant Party hereto shall in any event contribute to the amount paid or payable by the Indemnified Party, as a result of the loss, claim, damage, liability, cost or expense (other than a loss, claim, damage, liability, cost or expenses, the primary cause of which is the gross negligence or bad faith of the Indemnified Party), any excess of such amount over the amount of the fees actually received by the Indemnified Party hereunder.

ARTICLE 14
