VANCOUVER, BC, April 26, 2022 /CNW/ - Megawatt Lithium and Battery Metals Corp. (CSE: MEGA) (FSE: WR20) (OTCQB: WALRF) (the "Company" or "Megawatt") is pleased to announce that on April 20, 2022 its common shares commenced trading on the OTCQB under the symbol "WALRF". The Company's common shares will continue to trade on the Canadian Securities Exchange (CSE) under the symbol "MEGA".

David Thornley-Hall, CEO, commented, "This upgraded listing from the OTC Pink Sheets to the OTCQB will enhance the visibility of our Company, making it accessible to a much broader range of U.S. investors and brokers at a time when the commodities complex including lithium, and rare earths specifically, are experiencing unprecedented demand, and when demand for mining exploration stocks in top jurisdictions is on the rise."

The OTCQB is a US trading platform that is operated by the OTC Markets Group in New York and is the premier marketplace for entrepreneurial and development stage U.S. and international companies that are committed to providing a high-quality trading and information experience for their US investors. To be eligible, companies must be current in their financial reporting, pass a minimum bid price test, and undergo an annual company verification and management certification process. The OTCQB quality standards provide a strong baseline of transparency, as well as the technology and regulation to improve the information and trading experience for investors.

By meeting and maintaining the stricter eligibility requirements of the OTCQB listing, the Company benefits from Blue-Sky exemptions, certain U.S. state securities laws, which has the potential to further enhance trading volumes through an expansion of investment advisers' ability to recommend investments to their U.S. clients. North American and international investors can find Real-Time level 2 quotes (denominated in US dollars) and market information for the Company common shares at <https://www.otcmarkets.com/stock/WALRF/overview> along with current company news.
