

Goldrea Appoints David R. Robinson as Director

September 22, 2020 - Vancouver, BC

Goldrea Resources Corp. (CSE:GOR | Frankfurt:GOJ | OTC:GORAF) (“Goldrea” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that David R. Robinson has been appointed to the Company’s board of directors.

Mr. Robinson brings over 30 years of experience in corporate finance, having founded and financed many junior resource companies and successfully raising in excess of $400 million to launch or accelerate growth in these enterprises. He is a founder and partner in Calgary-based GCP Global Capital Partners which has established a new junior resource fund on behalf of clients of Zurich-based Canopus Capital AG, and is currently Vice President of Business Development for Vancouver-based Columbia Capital Inc. which actively supports major Korean companies and investors as they invest in the Canadian and global resource sector. Between March 2016 and January 2017, Mr. Robinson was the founding CEO and a director of TSXV-listed Blackrock Gold Corp. He has a Bachelor of Science in Geology from the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, BC, and an MBA from Queen’s University in Kingston, ON.

“Goldrea is fortunate to engage a director with the depth of knowledge and experience that David possesses,” said Jim Elbert, President & CEO. “We are confident his industry influence will help Goldrea navigate the intricacies of our property expansion and corporate growth. David’s knowledge of both geology and the markets in general is a significant addition to our Board which we believe will translate into enhanced shareholder value. We are pleased to welcome David to the team.”
