"We continue to work through the historical data on the EPLs in order to complete a formulated plan for exploration for the third and fourth quarters of this year. The transfer of the EPLs is the first sign of our good standing with the Namibian Government and we look forward a strong and fruitful relationship moving forward," stated Puranium President and CEO, Jason Bagg. "We look forward to getting on the ground and finding uranium on our EPL's", added Mr. Bagg.
