VSBLTY LAUNCHES NEW CORPORATE WEBSITE - SHOWCASES MARKETING & SECURITY TECHNOLOGY

PHILADELPHIA, PA., APRIL 24, 2019 — VSBLTY Groupe Technologies Corp. (CSE: VSBY) (Frankfurt: 5VS) is pleased to announce the launch of its new, upgraded website (vsblty.net) that demonstrates “The Intersection of Marketing & Security.”

VSBLTY is a leading software technology company that provides consumer audience measurement using the power of machine learning through computer vision. Its industry-leading VisionCaptor™ and DataCaptor™ combines motion graphics or interactive brand messaging on any digital display at point of customer contact with “first of its kind” FacialAnalytics. VSBLTY’s measurement technology records demographics such as age, gender, and sentiment as well as audience measurement including content touches, traffic counts, and dwell time.

Jay Hutton, VSBLTY Co-Founder and CEO, said, “Our website shows how our digital display solutions are transforming public spaces and providing actionable marketing insights. In addition, VSBLTY Vector™, our disruptive software module that can detect “persons of interest” as well as any type of weapon, is significantly enhancing security in airports, transit hubs, as well as at casinos and sports & entertainment venues, all while brand advertising is offsetting the cost.”

Mr. Hutton emphasized the growing need for heightened security and the company’s commitment to using their technology to be part of a turnkey security solution, by saying, “Today, everyone is at risk. Everywhere. Anywhere. And at any time. There is a pressing need now, more than ever, to provide security where it has never been available before — especially to ensure the safety of our children at school.”

In a video https://youtu.be/NhtVDANWsqc and on the website, Mr. Hutton explains how VSBLTY’s proactive digital displays enhance security using cameras embedded in digital signage to create a unique vantage point for today’s security needs.

News About VSBLTY
